

How you set up your LifeBand will depend on the shape of your forehead. Below are the three main forehead shapes that will determine how you place and/or stack the sensor dots on the LifeBand.

It is recommended to try the first option for a few days and if problems persist, try option 2. You may need assistance from a colleague or supervisor to determine which style best suited to you

